G. D. SECTION

To

The Chief Secretary to the Government of His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore, Bangalore.

Sir,

With reference to your letter No.R.A.165, dated 25-7-1923, I have the honour to request that you will be good enough to accord the necessary sanction to nominate a member of our Balija Sangham to the Mysore Representative Assembly as final orders have been passed and published by the Government on the report of The Reforms Committee.

In this connection I would draw your attention to the fact that in the month of July 1922 when a similar request was made, the Government called for a full report from the Deputy Commissioner, Bangalore, regarding the working of the Sangham and its utility etc., and a report was also submitted to the Government by the said officer and the Government was then pleased to state that after a reclassification of all the institutions which necessarily required a representation in the Assembly, our case would be favourably considered.

I, therefore, now request that our frequent representations in this matter will be favourably considered and the necessary sanction may be accorded as the members of our community in this Province do not form a negligible factor and and many are prosperous and thriving merchants, contractors, and agriculturists &c.

I beg to remain,

Sir,

Your most obedient servan

C.K. Balija

THE MEMORANDUM OF ASSOCIATION AND RULES OF THE BALIJA SANGHAM BANGALORE.

BANGALORE:
PRINTED AT THE CITY PRESS.

15

THE BALIJA SANGHAM
BANGALORE.

Founded on 16th November 1919 and Registered on 17th September 1920.

In the matter of Regulation No. III of 1904 being a Regulation for the Registration of Literary, Scientific and Charitable Societies in Mysore.

AND

In the matter of the Balija Sangham.

MEMORANDUM OF ASSOCIATION.

1. The name of the Association is the Balija Sangham, Bangalore.

2. The objects for which the Sangham is established are :—

(i) To ensure the advancement of the Balija Community by means of education having primarily for its end the training of the young men and women of the community.

(ii) To afford all reasonable facilities for the acquisition of knowledge by the young men and women of the community.

(iii) To encourage the spirit of mutual good-will and amity among the various sections of the community, with a view to the promotion of the social well-being and unity of the Balija people.

(iv) Such other objects as may from time to time be suggested by the General Body.

3. These objects will be sought to be realised by the following means :—

(a) The erection of a Building or Buildings in Bangalore at present, and in other places in future, for locating the office of the Sangham and for founding a School and a Home for Balija Students.

(b) The publication of a Newspaper or a Magazine or both containing information on all subjects that are likely to spread useful knowledge among the Balijas and also serving as the medium of communication of the Sangham's activities.

(c) The establishment of a Library.

(d) The employment of missionaries of approved abilities to travel about the country for popularising the work of the Sangham and for bringing home to the members of the Balija Community the benefits of Education.

(e) The doing of such other things as may be necessary for the proper fulfilment of the objects of the Sangham.

4. The Sangham shall have power:—

(ii) To raise, hold and manage all funds raised for the above objects.

(ii) To purchase or acquire on lease or in exchange or on hire or by gift or otherwise of any real or personal property, any rights or privilages necessary or convenient for the purpose of the Sangham.

(iii) To sell, improve, manage and develope all or any part of the property of the Sangham.

(iv) To do all such things as are incidental or conducive to the above objects or any of them.

5. The income and property of the Sangham whencesoever derived, shall be applied solely towards the promotion of the objects of the Sangham as set forth in this Memorandum of Association, and no portion thereof shall be paid or transferred directly or indirectly by way of dividends, bonus, or otherwise by way of profits to persons who, at any time, are or have been members of the Sangham or to any of them or any person claiming through any of them: Provided that nothing herein contained shall prevent the payment in good faith of remuneration to any officers or servants of the Sangham or to any member thereof or other person in return for any services rendered to the Sangham.

6. The member or members of the Executive Committee shall be answerable for any loss arising in the administration or application of the said trust funds or sums of money or for any damage to or deterioration in the said trust premises unless such loss, damage or deterioration shall happen by or through his or their wilful default or neglect.

7. If upon the dissolution of Sangham, there shall remain, after the satisfaction of all its debts and liabilities, any property whatsoever, the same shall not be paid to or distributed among the members of the Sangham or any of them, but shall be made over to Government to be used for purposes similar to the objects of the Sangham as may be determined by the votes of not less than three fifths of the members of the Sangham present, personally or by proxy, at a meeting called for the purpose, or in default thereof by such Judge or Court of Law as may have jurisdiction in the matter.

4. Each Branch Association shall be subordinate direct to the Central Association at Bangalore.

5. All certificates relating to the formation of Branch Associations and the enrolment of members shall derive their authority from the President acting with the advice and consent of the Executive Committee, and may be cancelled by the same authority.

6. Each Branch Association shall have its own Rules furnished to it by the Central Association for guidance of its business and shall be bound to act in accordance with the same.

7. Each Branch Association shall appoint a Secretary who shall be the channel of official communication between the Central Association and the Branch in matters connected with the business of the Branch.

8. The Secretary of each Branch Association shall forward to the President annually not later than the fifth day of September a Report of the work of the Branch up to the 31st day of August previous, and at any time furnish any further information, the President of the Executive Committee may call for.

9. In the event of the withdrawal from the Sangham of any Branch thereof, its constituent Certificate granted by the President shall ipso-facto lapse and become forfeited, and all property, including Certificates, Seal, Records and other papers, pertaining to the Sangham, belonging to or in the custody of such branch shall vest in the Sangham and shall be delivered up to the President in its behalf; and such Branch shall not be entitled to continue to use the name or motto of the Sangam. Provided nevertheless that the President with the advice and consent of the Executive Committee shall have power to revive and transfer the said Certificate of the seceding Branch to such non-seceding members thereof as in his judgment shall seem best for the interests of the Sangham.

Members.

10. There shall be two classes of Members:

(i) Life Members, and

(ii) Ordinary Members.

11. Those members of the community who shall make a subscription of Rupees One Hundred or upwards shall be entitled to become Life Members.

12. Ordinary Members will pay a minimum subscription of Rupees Three per annum.

13. Those who give donations shall be known as Donors. These are not necessarily members.

14. Every application for membership in the Sangham shall be made on the prescribed form and shall be endorsed by two respectable members of the community and signed by the applicant who shall also affix his signature to a declaration printed therein.

26

15. An application for membership shall be made through the President or Secretary of a Branch or through the General Secretary of the Central Association.

The General Body.

16. The General Body shall consist of the members of the Executive Committee ex-officio as well as all the members of the Sangham enrolled as above.

17. The General Body shall ordinarily meet once a year, at the time of the annual meeting or Conference of the Sangham.

18. A special meeting may be called at any time by the President or the Secretary of the General Body at the written request of the Executive Committee, but not less than two months' notice shall be given of such special meeting which shall deal only with such questions as are mentioned in the notice calling the meeting.

19. The quorum for an ordinary meeting of the General Body shall be four times and that of a special meeting thrice as many of the quorum fixed for the Executive Committee. If there be no quorum, the meeting may be adjourned sine die or the Chairman of the meeting may adjourn it to another date of which one month's further notice shall be given, when, the business of the meeting shall be disposed of, irrespective of whether there is a quorum present or not.

20. The President shall preside at all meetings of the General Body and shall have a casting vote in the case of an equal division of the members voting on any question before the meeting.

21. The General Body shall in the absence of the President, elect a Chairman to preside over the meeting; and in case of equality of votes, the Chairman for the time being shall have a casting vote.

22. The General body shall give its opinion on the general conduct of affairs of the Sangham and on all measures in contemplation affecting the interests of the Balija people, and shall decide all questions specially referred to it by the Executive Committee.

Executive Committee

23. The affairs of the Sangham shall be conducted by an Executive Committee which shall be the governing body of the Sangham, and shall consist of a President, 2 Vice Presidents, one Treasurer, one General Secretary, one Asst General Secretary and not more than 16 other members.

24. The Executive Committee shall meet every month for the despatch of business. A special meeting of the Committee may be called whenever necessary either by the President or the Secretary for the disposal of urgent business.

25. At a meeting of the Executive Committee six members shall constitute a quorum.

26. The President or in his absence one of the Vice Presidents of the Executive Committee shall preside at all meetings of the Committee and shall have a casting vote in the case of an equal division of the members voting on any question before the meeting.

27. In the absence of the President or Vice Presidents, the meeting shall elect a Chairman from among the members present at the meeting, and he shall have a casting vote in the case of a tie.

28. The Executive Committee shall have power to add to their number so as not to exceed the maximum fixed and to fill up from among its own members all vacancies among its office bearers.

29. It shall be competent for the Executive Committee to remove any of its members from the Committee and any of the members of the Sangham from his office in the Sangham, by a three-fourths majority of its whole number of members present at a special meeting called for the purpose, of which at least 7 days' notice shall have been given, the quorum consisting however, of not less than 8 members. If there be no quorum or if the opinion of the majority of members present be that the matter should not be disposed of at that meeting, the matter shall be referred to the General Body.

30. The Executive Committee shall have power to entertain the establishment necessary for the management of the business of the Sangham and shall also have authority to remove any appointees from their offices.

31. The Executive Committee may authorise or incur any expense for carrying out the objects of the Sangham in accordance with the resolution of the General Body.

32. The Executive Commitee shall have power to frame bye-laws for the efficient management of the Sangham provided the same are not inconsistent with the Rules of the Sangham.

33. The President of the Executive Committee shall conduct and direct the business of the Sangham in compliance with its standing Rules as well as Resolutions framed from time time; he shall be empowered to make temporary appointments and to fill provisionally all vacancies that occur in the establishment of the Sangham in consultation with the General Secretary.

Finance.

34. All subscriptions, donations and other moneys payable to the Sangham shall be received by the President of the Executive Committee, or the Treasurer, or the General Secretary; the receipt of any one of them in writing shall be a sufficient discharge for the same.

35. Such portions of the funds of the Sangham as may from time to time be fixed by the Executive Committee shall remain in the custody of the Treasurer.

36. The Securities and uninvested funds of the Sangham shall be deposited in the Mysore Government Savings Bank or in the Bank of Madras in the name of the Sangham. Cheques shall be drawn against the funds in accordance with the Resolutions of the Executive Committee and shall be signed by the President and the Treasurer.

37. The funds of the Sangham not required for current expenses may be invested by the President with the concurrence of the Executive Committee in Government Securities or in the purchase of immoveable property, or in first mortgages on such property and with like advice and consent, the President may sell, mortgage or transfer the same.

38. Documents and Conveyances in respect of the transfer of property to the Sangham shall bear the signature of the President of the Executive Committee, of the General Secretary. and shall have affixed to them the seal of the Sangham.

39. The Sangham may sue and be sued in the name of the President of the Executive Committee.

Audit of Accounts.

40. The financial accounts of the Sangham shall be audited every month by the Auditors of the Executive committee and annually by a certified Auditor or Auditors specially appointed by the Executive committee.

Annual Conference.

41. The annual general meeting or Conference of the Sangham shall be held once in a year in any suitable month as may be decided upon by the Executive Committee, in Bangalore, or in that centre where it may have been decided upon, at the next previous Conference that it should be held.

42. It shall rest with the Executive Committee to direct and manage the business connected with the Conference.

43. The Conference shall be open to all the Balija people irrespective of their being members of the Sangham, and upon invitation, to the public at large.

Revision of Rules.

44. The Executive Committee may make, vary or repeal Bye-laws for the conduct of the business of the Sangham, and the General Body may from time to time, add to, alter or abridge these Rules and Regulations in such manner as it may deem expedient in the interests of the Sangham, by a three-fourths majority of its whole number of members present, either in the General Meeting or at a Special Meeting called for the purpose of which at least one month's notice shall have been given, the quorum consisting, however of not less than 14 members.

With reference to your letter no. 1670
Ry. 19-23-4
dated 1.2.1924 enquiring whether the Balija and Banajiga are the same community, I have the honour to state that both the terms refer to the same community - Balija is the original words as mentioned in our Balija Puranam representing that Balijas were born from Bali or Sacrificial fire. Banajiga is a term used only in Kanarese country where we are known as Telugu Banajigas - Some opine that the word is derived from vanijyaga and them Banijyagaru later on as Banijaga as some of our caste people were traders and even now many are so; but majority of our people are very backward in in education and trade etc and may chiefly earn out their livelihood as cultivating tenants under Land Lords and as coolies etc.

Some of them own lands also and major portion of our people live in Bangalore and other districts.
